Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 13-14, 16-17, and 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

After much deliberation and consultation with other patent professional at the PTO, it has been concluded that the subject matter added to claim 17 is new matter despite all the portions of the Specification cited by Applicant to convince the Examiner otherwise.

While it is apparent from a reading of those passages taken from the original disclosure that the preferred embodiments of Applicant's invention are supposed to be at least mostly devoid of rigid materials such as PPE, there is simply no evidence that Applicant had specifically contemplated omitting PPE, or any other compound for that matter, from the layer (Q). Indeed, in the broadest description of the multi-layered aspect of their invention at page 10, lines 22-25, it is said of layer Q only that it contains (containing) an elastomer (F). Nowhere in the Specification does Applicant ever directly mention that layer Q should be absent of certain other materials. According to MPEP

2111.02, "containing" is synonymous with comprising and, "is inclusive or open-ended and does not exclude additional, unrecited elements or method steps".

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 10-12 and 15 are allowable.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
